

fp @GROUPS

Leader Qualifications/Expectations

- Have a personal, growing relationship with Jesus Christ.
- Recognize the Bible as the authority for your life.
- Have the time, emotional capacity, and spiritual discernment to lead a group.
- Must be a Core member or in the process of becoming a Core member of Faith Promise Church.
- Commit to the beliefs, visions, values, and strategies of Faith Promise.
- Commit to completing New Leader Training, either online or by attending a live training event.
- Lead the group by facilitating the group meeting; helping to create a safe and authentic environment, and promoting participation among group members.
- Commit to being open to multiplying your group and identifying new leaders within your group.
- Commit to engage in leadership development opportunities provided by the church and commit to attend Leaders' Gatherings. (Usually 2 per year)
- Group Leaders are supported by a FPC Groups Coach. A Coach's role is to serve as a shepherd leader to a group of group leaders. -Commit to engage relation ally with your Coach by attending Monthly Group Leader Meetings led by your Coach and One-On-One Meetings as needed with your Coach. The purpose of the monthly meetings is for leaders to gather together to encourage each other and learn from each other, as well as provide your Coach with an opportunity to know you and shepherd you as you shepherd your group members.
- Commit to input attendance weekly and contact new prospects in a timely manner.
- Commit to completing annual Group Assessments.